Wireshark Application

Analysis and optimization of typical TCP/IP applications

In addition to good TCP/IP knowledge and experience in using Wireshark, a solid understanding of how the applications used in the network work is a prerequisite for successful analysis. This course covers the functionality of typical TCP/IP applications and their protocols in theory and practice. The focus is on analysis with Wireshark to quickly identify, isolate and rectify errors.

Course Contents

- Wireshark at a glance
- TCP/IP analysis with Wireshark - The most important points
- Analyzing applications with Wireshark
- Application performance and performance parameters
- Evaluate and assess response times
- Analyzing HTTP
- Analyzing secure protocols - SSL/TLS, SSH and more
- Analyze DNS and DNS server processes
- Analysis of FTP and TFTP
- Analysis of Citrix and RDP
- Analysis of multi-tier database applications

E-Book You will receive the comprehensive documentation package from ExperTeach – printed documentation, e-book, and personalized PDF! As online participant, you will receive the e-book and the personalized PDF.

Target Group

This workshop is suitable for network administrators and all technical staff who are responsible for the planning, implementation and error-free operation of networks and who want to familiarize themselves specifically with Wireshark analysis of TCP/IP applications.

Prerequisites

Participants should have solid knowledge and practical experience in using Wireshark as well as knowledge of TCP/IP and IP addressing. Prior attendance of the course Wireshark Protocol Analysis - Practical Use in the Network is highly recommended.
